

Digital Skills For Everyday life

RCS are offering a free course which builds on motivation & confidence levels for participants in order to increase their readiness for work & to use their digital skills in everyday life.

The course will teach learners to utilise online functions such as email & zoom as well as support with accessing online services such as shopping which has become a necessity since lockdown.

Starting
September 2021

Andover & Romsey

To book on to the course or to find out more please call

01264 359 223

or email rcsserviceseducation@gmail.com

