

Maths for the Workplace

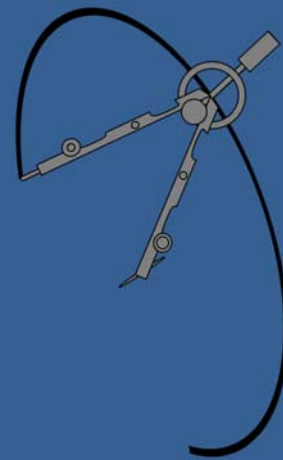

RCS are running a free Maths course. This will help to support job seekers improve their numerical skills in preparation for the workplace. The course will include the software which businesses use such as Microsoft Excel and how to utilise software to record & analyse data.

Starting September

Basingstoke, New Forest,

Eastleigh & Winchester

To book on to the course please call

01264 359223

Or email rcsserviceseducation@gmail.com

